

Rural Land Agent

CKD Galbraith and a top sporting manager have developed a specialist integrated sporting and land management service, focused on providing a top quality service to a handful of the very best sporting estates in the country. We are looking to recruit a land agent of the highest quality to compliment the sporting manager's role in running some of the top grouse moors in Scotland and the north of England.

The ideal candidate will have a detailed understanding of shooting and the complimentary land, human resource and agricultural management required to be the very best in the field. You will have a great deal of energy, the maturity to be able to engage and enthuse keepers, shepherds, and other estate staff to ensure the smooth running and top performance of these world class properties. You will have the confidence to engage with demanding, highly intelligent and successful clients and win their confidence in an exceptional level of service. Your work will be flawless, you will get things right first time, every time and will be working alongside a sporting manager who meets these standards and expects them of others. You will be an excellent communicator, preferably professionally qualified and prepared to take full responsibility for the land management service you will deliver.

We are looking to appoint early 2012. Please apply in writing with CV and a note of your current remuneration package to Tim Kirkwood, Chief Executive, CKD Galbraith, Reay House, 17 Old Edinburgh Road, Inverness, IV2 3HF, or email: tim.kirkwood@ckdgalbraith.co.uk.
