

Rural Practice Chartered Surveyor North of England

The CLA is moving to new offices at Aske Stables, Richmond in early February from where it will look after its 6,500 farming and landowning members in the North of England.

We are seeking a qualified rural practice surveyor with a minimum of 2 years post qualification experience and a broad appreciation of rural issues to work as part of the professional team.

This is an exciting, high profile and varied role. The successful candidate will work closely with the Regional Director and other members of the team as well as with our national policy experts in advising members across the North of England on all matters relating to landownership and the rural economy including public access, planning, environment, single payment and tenancy issues as well as representing members' views on stakeholder meetings.

Excellent verbal and written communication skills are essential as well as a high level of computer literacy. A full driving licence is required as the position involves considerable travel throughout the North of England.
